1. The former emergency fighter plane landing field at Pomssen near Leipzig is being expanded into a large airfield. Numerous underground installations (exact number not known) are being constructed; ground is being cleared; and new trees are being planted for camouflage purposes. The field is about seven kilometers long and five kilometers wide.

2. The following is the key to the attached sketch of the area of the new airfield at Pomssen:

- 1 - Leipzig
- 2 - beginning of the Autobahn near Engelsdorf in the direction of Halle via Schkeuditzer Kreuz
- 3 - city of Wurzen, 27 kilometers from Leipzig
- 4 - city of Grimma, about 18 kilometers from Wurzen
- 5 - Gross and Klein Otterwisch, a village south of Pomssen; preparatory work for the airfield extends to the edge of this village
- 6 - Maunhof, a village north of Pomssen; preparatory work for the airfield extends as far north as this village
- 7 - Pomssen, location of the former fighter plane landing field
- 8-- Liebert-Wolkwitz, a village about 22 kilometers from Grimma
- 9.- Area on which preparations for the airfield are being carried out
